

YOM KIPPUR UPDATE

Based upon comments and feedback from many of you, we have made a few adjustments to the Yom Kippur schedule times and offerings. Those changes are noted in RED for ease of identification.

*For those congregants who will not be using technology on Yom Kippur, the Rabbi and Cantor are offering a pre-yontif Yizkor & Kol Nidre via Zoom at 1:00pm on Sunday, Sept. 27th. This event is open to the greater Jewish community, so please spread the word!

**For young families, Rabbi Julie looks forward to joining you on Zoom for our young family service on Yom Kippur morning from 9:00 - 9:30am. The previously-scheduled K-6 program at 12:00pm is cancelled, but it's being replaced with a special program for K-6 students and families from 5:30 - 6pm, featuring a surprise guest (hint: he's new to CBI and bald). Join us for "Jonah, What Were You Thinking?"

***Neilah was previously scheduled to begin at 6:15pm. Its new start time is 6:05pm. Neilah will be conducted from the sanctuary and will be available on YouTube Live and on Zoom. At 6:50pm, the Rabbi and Cantor will pause to prepare for Havdalah & shofar blowing in the parking lot. Havdalah from the parking lot will begin at 7:10pm. You can join us in person or participate on Zoom.

CBI's High Holiday Appeal – now online!

Like most synagogues, CBI depends on the High Holiday Appeal to support our operating budget (as annual dues cover only 60% of our expenses). This year the need is even greater due to the additional pandemic related expenses to ensure the safety of our members. To fill this gap, we value and rely upon the generous support of each member of CBI to contribute to the High Holiday Appeal.

"Do as much as you can and then just a little more than you can. This is vital", wrote Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel. Whatever you gave last year, if at all possible, please consider giving a bit more, to help us close the gap in our operating budget.

To pledge online, please CLICK HERE to fill out this year's pledge amount and the CBI office will take care of the rest. Other ways to donate are to return your pledge card or call the main office.
