Shalom!

Welcome to Lifelong Learning at CBI!

In the Talmud we learn about a conversation that took place among Rabbi Tarfon, Rabbi Akiva and other elders of the community in Lod. In response to the question: Is study greater or action greater? Rabbi Tarfon answered and said, 'Action is greater.' Rabbi Akiva answered and said, 'Study is greater.' They all answered and said, 'Study is greater, since study brings about action.'
(Excerpted from BT Kiddushin 41a)

Talmud Study: Origins of Jewish Prayer with Rabbi Akiba Lubow

Mondays from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. on Zoom

In this class we will enter the extraordinary world of the Talmud, arguably the most important Jewish text after the Torah.

Written down between 1500 and 1800 years ago, we'll discover how relevant its teachings are today!

While our focus will be on the Origins of Jewish

Practice and Theology, at the same time we will see how these foundations impact the way we live Judaism today. This course is appropriate for both beginners and those who have already studied Talmud. Knowledge of Hebrew is not a prerequisite. While it is not necessary to attend every week, a relatively regular pattern of attendance will enhance understanding the course material.

Monday Morning Modules

Mondays from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. on Zoom

A variety of short-term offerings on different topics that comprise an engaging and interactive learning experience. It is not necessary to attend each session.

1) October 4, 18, 25 & November 1 -- The Story of the State of Israel Through Its Music with Len Hausman

In our next module we will be focusing further on the seminal fifth period of immigration (1929-1939) that led to the State of Israel. During these years the bare bones of the future state developed muscle and sinew and a new Hebrew culture firmly took root. We will learn about this pioneering generation through the music that tells their story. We will listen to their songs, which often include lyrics from Israel's poets.

2) November 8, 15, & 22 -- Jewish Art with Abby Schwartz, Director, Skirball Museum, HUC-JIR/Cincinnati

Abby Schwartz presents three weeks of new topics in Jewish Art.

3) November 29 & December 6 -- Celebrate the Miracle of Chanukah with Cantor Lorna Wallach

Songs and teachings related to the holiday.

4) December 13 -- Living Memories with Shira Mushkin

Living Memories explores the daily lives of women who lived over a century ago, in different Jewish communities in Europe. This project portrays digital collages which consist of photographs of tombstones, taken in eighteen different Jewish cemeteries throughout Europe, over the course of eight years, and black and white photographs of women from the Jewish community in Lublin, Poland, taken in the beginning of the 20th century by the Jewish photographer, Abram Zylberberg.

Monthly Programs

Shabbat Journeys' Minyan ~ Lay-Led Discussion

The Shabbat Journeys' Minyan is an opportunity for congregants to get together on Shabbat morning to discuss and explore topics related to the weekly Torah portion, meaning of prayers or psalms, holiday traditions, characters in the bible, contemporary issues, liturgical songs and music or any other topic related to Jewish life.

DATES TBD - please check the CBI Announcements.

Chanting Circle

Sundays, 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. on Zoom

The CBI Chanting Circle is now in its 11th year! If you are a person curious about exploring the spiritual dimensions of your Judaism, the chanting circle is for you. No knowledge of Hebrew or ability to read it is needed, nor is a singing voice. Musical instruments are used throughout, yet it is not a performance. It is meditative, yet it is not meditation. If you want your Judaism to be experientially compelling in a way that a usual prayer service may not always be, the chanting circle is for you.
