Gratitude and Love

First, we appreciate everyone who participated in (and attended) our Sisterhood Shabbat services this weekend. It was unexpected that we were not able to daven and kvell in person, but we are happy everyone could come together as a Sisterhood and as a Congregation this Shabbat. We are flexible and resilient!

A very big shout out to our Rabbi Ari Isenberg, head tech gabbi, as well as our devoted assistant tech gabbaim, Amy Dantus & Karen Tucker, for keeping the service running smoothly behind the scenes. Also we appreciate Amy Dantus (Friday night) and Paula Touger (Shabbat morning) who agreed to cover any last minute cancellations!

Thank you to the Sisterhood Past Presidents who give so much of themselves: Deena Bernhaut, Cheryl Burstein, Amy Dantus, Linda Glasofer, Jennifer Glick, Sandy Haimoff, Laurie Kavowras, Ruth Kirshner, Harriet Klein, Linda Lakin, Carol Marcus, Beverly Orel, Sandy Panzer, Robin Polson, Sharon Richman, Ruth Rosenberg, Wendy Rosenberg, Leila Schott, Janet Slifer, Nancy Tenenbaum, Paula Touger, Karen Tucker, Eve Wasserman, Risa Wasserman and Nancy Weinstein, and an extra special shout-out to our Sisterhood ex-officio Marion Mohl.

A dank to our Sisterhood Players, co-directors Ruth Kirshner, Laurie Kavorwas, & Lisa Friedman, and dedicated team members Debbie Toplansky, Miriam Linver, & Chaya Cohen.

Todah Rabah to Cantor Wallach and Rabbi Isenberg for all their help and support.

Merci beaucoup to Paul Gibilisco, Joi Noel and all the wonderful CBI staff for their assistance in preparation for this weekend and throughout the year, especially during this difficult time.

Last, but certainly not least, muchos gracias to Alia Covell for creating this beautiful program.

WOMEN IN ISRAEL

Throughout the ages You have blessed us, O Lord,
With women who tended the altars of our faith.

Through these noble women Israel was redeemed;
Because of them Israel has survived.

They have inspired and guided our youth;
They have preserved and transmitted Your word.

May the women in our generation like those of the past,
Keep Israel an eternal witness of the sacred.

May they, like Sarah, zealously guide their young,
Keeping them constant and steadfast in faith.

Then shall our children remain
Ever devoted to You.

May our women, like Rachel, be deeply concerned
For the children of Israel wherever they dwell,

Sharing their glory, feeling their pain,
And helping rebuild the ancient homeland.

May they, like Hannah, who joyfully brought her young Samuel to Shiloh for service to God,

Bring our children also in their tender years,
For guidance and light to the House of the Lord,

To learn the traditions, the teachings and laws
Of our prophets and sages, our martyrs and saints.

Then shall our children be imbued in their youth,
With hope for their future through knowledge of their past.

May our women, O God, inspire in our young
A love for the Torah, our true way of life.

Through such noble women Israel shall be redeemed;
Through the merits of their children Israel shall survive.
