

CBI Sisterhood Rosh Chodesh Program

Reproductive Rights Part 2

On REPRO SHABBAT, we learned that Reproductive Freedom is a Jewish value. Now, let's discuss...

- ♥ What is the federal legislative landscape?
- ♥ What is the state legislative landscape?
- ♥ What has been accomplished here in NJ?
- ♥ What can we do to help create a world in which every woman can make her own decisions about her body, health & family?

Guest Speakers:

Phoebe Pollinger is the National Council of Jewish Women's (NCJW) New Jersey State Policy Advocate. A Board member of the NCJW, Essex County, NJ Section (NCJW/Essex), she serves as Co-chair of its Reproductive Rights Committee. Phoebe has lobbied our state and federal legislators, spoken publicly in various forums and marched and picketed on behalf of women's health legislation and reproductive rights for over 20 years. She is the recipient of NCJW/Essex's Hannah G. Solomon Award for Service to the Community and NCJW National's Social Change Tribute Award.

Roxanne Sutocky (she/her) serves as Director of Public Affairs for The Women's Centers, a group of independent abortion providers located in CT, GA, PA, and here in New Jersey at Cherry Hill Women's Center. For the last decade, Roxanne has supported people seeking abortions and facilitated educational, political, and volunteer opportunities for community members. In her role with The Women's Centers, Roxanne seeks to break down misinformation and stigma surrounding abortion care and envisions a future where everyone can get reproductive health care when we need it, laws support each of us, and all pregnancy decisions are met with love and support.
