

Shalom, BBRS families!

I hope you are all enjoying a wonderful summer. I'm so happy we finally have great weather (no rain, no smoke, and less humidity!).

We are looking forward to another wonderful year of Jewish learning and living together in BBRS! Our schedule remains the same: Sunday mornings 9:30–12, Tuesday afternoons 4:30–6, and 1:1 online Hebrew/Prayer learning required for grades 3–7 and optional for grades 1–2.

Our OPENING DAY is Sunday, September 10. Families are invited from 9:30 to 10:30 am to meet the teachers and celebrate the beginning of the year together! (After that, teachers and madrichim will have their orientation meeting and families are invited to join Federation for Family Fun @ the Zoo.)

After that, our Tuesdays begin in earnest. We offer High Holiday programming on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, then BBRS families will meet on Sunday, October 1 for Sukkot and Sunday, October 8 for Simchat Torah. Since these are holidays, we will have special (super–fun!) activities for families to enjoy together.

PLEASE REGISTER FOR 1:1 HEBREW HERE with your top 3 choices of days/times.

Please download our CALENDAR and make note of special family workshops and Shabbat/holiday programs! And watch for a follow–up email with teacher information.

Enjoy the rest of the summer!
L'hitra'ot,
Rabbi Julie
