

Rakhel Silverman-Gitin: My Experience as a Proud Trans Disabled Jew

Saturday, June 9 at 9:30 a.m.
Congregation B'nai Israel
160 Millburn Ave., Millburn, NJ

As a member of the LGBTQ+ community, Rakhel describes themselves as someone who is passionate about social justice and inclusion. Rakhel double majored in religious studies and sociology at Bryn Mawr University. They have extensive experience working with non-profit organizations in Massachusetts and Washington, D.C. where they mobilized the Jewish community to defend transgender rights and worked as a community organizer. Rakhel has written about their experiences and identities for several publications including Medium, MyJewishLearning, the Womens' Archives, and HeyAlma.

No cost or registration required for congregants to attend.

A Kiddush luncheon will follow the service.

Rakhel Silverman-Gitin

New York Education & Training Manager at Keshet

keshetonline.org

Have questions or for more information call 973-379-3811.

